

West Midlands Region Presents

Evening Talk Series 2012

Wednesday 14 March

Gillian Higgins, Sports & Remedial Therapist, BHS Senior Coach & Stable Manager will be talking about how rider asymmetry affects the horse and also how asymmetry of the muscular system of the horse can affect the rider

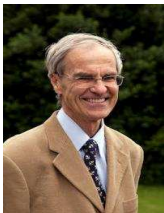

Photo courtesy of Hartpury Home Farm Stud

Wednesday 16 May

Lee Hackett, Senior Executive, Welfare will be talking about breeding – how to assess your mare, common mistakes to avoid and choosing the right stallion

Wednesday 18 April

Professor Derek Knottenbelt OBE BVM&S DVM&S Dip ECEIM MRCVS from Liverpool University will be talking about the weighty issue of 'too fat, too thin or just right? – fat is the question!' Derek will also be talking about head shaking.

Wednesday 13 June

Gillian Higgins will complete the series with a talk on training aids. There is a lot of debate about the efficiency of training aids and this talk takes an unbiased view of their effectiveness.

7pm onwards for 7.30pm start at

The Bell Inn, Bromsgrove Road, Belbroughton,
Stourbridge, West Midlands DY9 9XU

Tickets £15 in advance only

Book for all 4 talks and receive a £10 discount!

Please make cheques payable to 'The British Horse Society' and send to:
Andrea Jackman, West Midlands Development Officer, Nant Y Bwthyn,
Stepaside, Nr Newtown, Powys SY16 4JQ.
Tel no: 01686 627050/07881 661429 Email: a.jackman@bhs.org.uk

*Keep up to date with the BHS in the West Midlands at www.bhswm.org.uk
Or join us on Facebook – West Midlands BHS*

Fulfilling your passion for horses